

The Nyack Young Writers Scholarship

I'm still awake and it's a quarter-to-four in the morning. Somehow, I would like to provoke and encourage you, young writer, to enter this once-in-a-lifetime contest. I want this to convey that I am not simply asking you to enter your name, as you would enter a lottery or some raffle. I want this to convince you to sit down for however many hours it may take and consider how you can channel all of your anger, love, imagination, and anxiety into words on paper. I want you to speak your truth. I'm bored and lonely tonight, young writer, please write something that will help.

The Nyack Young Writers Scholarship recognizes two rising Nyack High School seniors, judged to have written and submitted the most outstanding prose or poetry. The scholarship awards $3,500 to the first-place recipient, and $1,000 to the second-place recipient, to assist in offsetting costs in pursuing a college degree at the school of his or her choice.

The scholarship is intended as a call to action for a young, aspiring writer, or for a student passionate about simply sharing his or her voice with the world. The sponsors of this scholarship and eventual readers of your work hope this scholarship will encourage exceptional poetic expression as opposed to typical academic achievement. They ask that you submit something you are proud of, a story or a collection of poems that will elicit laughs and tears, and shed light on human love or hate or fears or lusts or pain or faith or time or distrust or etc.

To be considered for the scholarship, applicants must be students entering their senior year at Nyack High School. The Nyack Young Writers Scholarship award is an outright grant, to be used in offsetting expenses, including tuition, room and board, or books/other materials.
